From the Editor

August is here and school has started once again. In this edition, the final group of Springfest award winners are shown for your enjoyment. With so many fine examples, it has taken 4 months to show them all.

Be sure to read Billy Bruce's convention report. It sounds like they all had a fun time, but we won't be asking him where to eat when we go to Hilton Head.

If you have anything to submit for the newsletter, please email it to 66corsa@cox.net, or mail it to:

JULY MEETING MINUTES - DAVID CLAMP

Our July meeting was held at the Ole Times Country Buffet in Warner Robins, GA. Attending were Joe and Rhonda Gail Gleaton, Tommy and Joan Couch, Tim Vossler, James and Lillian Law, Billy and Wendy Price, Chuck Smith, Shirley Smith, Clay Grant, and David Clamp.

With everything for our events for the rest of the year pretty much planned out, our formal meeting was short.

Clay Grant has been busy at work, but the busy season is about to end and he will be looking into purchasing the new cooker the we will use for future Springfests. Special thanks to Corvair Atlanta and Queen City Corvair Club for sharing in this expense.

Several members are attending the convention. Next year it will be in Knoxville, TN, so we should have an even greater club turnout.

Choo Choo Corvair Club's show in August should be fun. We have a good number of members going there as well.

In the good news front, James Law has finished restoring his 1964 Spyder convertible. One of the first things he and Lillian did was to take it to the the original owner's wife for her to check out. It was such a special event for her that she had a newspaper crew there to take pictures and run an article. Congratulations James!

Fall Joint Picnic with Corvair Atlanta

As reported earlier, Heart of Georgia Corvairs and Atlanta Corvairs car clubs will be holding a joint picnic and swap meet on September 20, 2014 in Indian Springs. Clay Grant is cooking the meats, and bringing the slaw and ice. Jeanette Cook is making tea, Lillian is making potato salad, and Chuck Smith will supply the chips and bread.

There will also be a swap meet at the picnic. If you have any spare parts to sell, bring them with you and earn a few extra dollars. If you have a set of 140 heads, Joe GLeaton is looking for some.

CORSA INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION IN TACOMA, WASHINGTON - Billy Bruce

Seven brave souls ventured out recently to Tacoma, Wa for the CORSA INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION. Billy, Wendy, & Kevin Price, James & Lillian Law, and Eleanor & I made the 2200 mile trip via Delta Airlines.

We all had a marvelous time; although I did lose my job as picker of the best places in Tacoma to eat. You will have to ask the crew about this.

We did have a great time and the LeMay Auto Museum was one of the very best I have been to. More impressive was the LeMay Family Collection which was about 12 miles from the LeMay Museum. This place had about 2200 vehicles ( auto's, trucks, motorcycles,) that included an Ultra van, 2 Greenbriers, a 66 Corsa convertible & a 64 Spyder Convertible. We (the guys) spent most of our time at the convention viewing this amazing collection.

We had seen most of the sites when we were up that way 5 years ago for the Portland convention but the Prices were on the go all the time, Mt St Helen, Mt Reiner, the Space Needle, Pikes Mkt., and every Antique Shop in the North West. There were a few bumps in the road at the convention which was smaller than usual ( 21 vehicles in the concours & 80 something in the car display) but as always our gang had a great time.
