From the Editor

This summer continues to be a busy one. Heidi and I will miss the July meeting in order to attend a family reunion. in our garage (Heidi's new Miata, my new Mustang, and my Corvair).

In the good news front, I pulled the right head off of my '65 and found the #5 cylinder had ingested one of the throttle plate screws from the primary carburetor. I should have it back on the road soon.

By the time the postal service gets this delivered, I'll be driving my new 2013 Mustang GT convertible. With it in the garage, we will have 3 blue convertibles

JUNE MEETING MINUTES - DAVID CLAMP

Hello everyone, Heidi is out of town today so your trusty editor is going to try to give you the highlights from our June meeting.

In attendance were: Pat and Emily Taylor, James and Lillian Law, Clay Grant, Billy and Eleanor Bruce, David and Heidi Clamp, Chuck Smith, Shirley Smith, Chuck Wofford, and Bill Trigg.

Billy Bruce called the meeting to order. Springfest, Vairs at the Fair, Hilton Head, and an autocross in SC were the main topics of discussion.

Lillian Law will be distributing checks from the Springfest account to the three clubs that worked the event. The city of Helen is no longer allowing us to use the Festhalle on half of the Thursday preceding the show for free any longer. Since it is a big help to get early access, a motion was put to a vote and was carried to pay for Thursday in the future.

Vairs at the Fair will carry on this year with no changes to the agenda from previous years. You can find hotel information on page 3 and a registration form on page 5.

Our club has been invited to bring eight cars to the jamboree portion of the Concours d' Elegance in Hilton Head, SC this year on November 2-4, 2012.

There is an autocross in South Carolina this fall. It will be held either at the end of September or sometime after Vairs at the Fair.

That should do it for June. Heidi and I won't be at the July meeting, so we'll see you in August.

Springfest Senior Class 3rd place - Marvin Crook

HILTON HEAD NEWS - LILLIAN LAW
