

The Vair Fax

From the Editor

I am now ready for Vairs at the Fair and the November Jamboree in Hilton Head. As of Saturday the 29th, my car is up and running...with no oil drips.

CORVAIR REGISTERED AS JAGUAR - Lillian Law

This is not about the Fair but I thought it was worth sharing. Richard Jenkins had registered to go to Hilton Head. When Sara found out she has to have Cancer treatments they decided they could not go.

Their son Ronnie asked if he could take the spot. I called Hilton Head and they told me in order for Ronnie to use the ticket they would have to change it down there but would be very glad to.

When the confirmation came it stated you have successfully registered with the Jaguar Club. Can you imagine the reaction of the Jaguar Club when they found a Corvair in one of there spots? She discovered her mistake and corrected it but the e-mail had already gone out.

Fair Update

Vairs at the Fair: We got our official invitation to be in the Fair parade. I have not gotten the information about the line up but they said we would park by the Lake. Looks like registration is a little off but we should still have enough Convertibles. We need every one that can to come early on Friday to help with set up. As far as I know we can throw candy. Don't forget your door prizes and food. Looking forward to seeing every one Thursday or Friday.

SEPTEMBER MEETING MINUTES - HEIDI CLAMP

Joe Gleaton welcomed everyone to the meeting held at Old Time Country Buffet in Warner Robins. Those in attendance were Joe and Rhonda-Gail Gleaton, Billy and Wendy Price, Chuck Smith, Shirley Smith, James and Lillian Law, Tim Vossler, Tye and Janet Howard, Joan and Tommy Couch, Clay Grant and Shalana Money Penny.

Lillian mentioned some items that are coming this fall:

Vairs at the Fair – For the Friday night dinner please bring your own side dishes. Please keep in mind that we will already have deviled eggs, meatballs, chicken salad and Chick-Fil-A nuggets. So please bring a side dish or a dessert. Saturday morning we will transport the dignitaries as usual to the fair and park by the lake. Paula and Al Hilderbrand will not be bringing a car this year so they will need a ride with someone as Paula drops off the doughnuts to the nursing home during the parade every year. Our Saturday night dinner will be GA Bob's BBQ as the main course. Also, if you bring a side dish you don't have to pay the registration for the banquet.

Hilton Head – For everyone who is going to Hilton Head if your aren't going to be able to come early please bring your ticket to Lillian and she will pick up your packet for you. We will still have our regular meeting in November.

Christmas Party – The Christmas Party will be held on our regular meeting day, which is Dec 8th in Albany, GA at James and Lillian's House.

See you at the FAIR !!!
