From the Editor

As we enter the fall season, there are a lot of events happening around the country before the weather turns too cool to be comfortable outside. I've included some some of the closer events in this newsletter.

We've also had some great representation at other shows recently and hopefully you'll enjoy those pictures that I received as much as I did.

If you got the latest Communique, you'll see that James Law won an award for his Rampside. He followed that up with a trophy at the Battle of Byron against some very nice classic cars and some fairly new ones as well.

If you have anything to submit for the newsletter, please email it to 66corsa@cox.net, or mail it to:

AUGUST MEETING MINUTES - DAVID CLAMP

August 10, 2013:

Attendees were Billy & Eleanor Bruce, Keith & Sharon Burkingstock, James Law, Tye and Janet Howard, and David & Heidi Clamp.

Since the meeting was happening at the Battle of Byron Car Show, we did not have a formal meeting to discuss club business. We noted that we'll meet at Ole Times Country Buffet for September, and that the November meeting will be at Tybee Island.

There were 52 cars in the show this year. James Law won an award for the nicest interior in the show with his 1963 Rampside. Congratulations James!

We'll see you in September.

NOVEMBER AT TYBEE ISLAND - LILLIAN LAW

Earlier this year the Heart of Georgia Corvair Club voted to hold their November meeting on Tybee Island. This is meant to be just a fun outing. I have found a small private owned mote in walking distance to the beach.

The Dunes Motel, 1409 Butler St., rates are $49.95 for a room with 2 Queen beds, call 912 786 4591. This is their rate for this time of year. If you think you would like to go call right away. Cancellation policy is 3 days before arrival This is an older motel and I am sure it is not fancy but we spend very little time in the rooms. The dates are Nov. 8 and 9.

Some of us plan to go down on Friday, others will drive down on Saturday. We have been to Tybee before and enjoyed it very much. This is our regular meeting weekend and should be a fun time. We will plan to all have dinner together Saturday night and spend time just hanging out. If you do not wish to stay at this motel there are others available, go to www.visittybee.com for other options. Anyone is welcome to join us for this outing, drive your Corvair or water pumper, just come and have fun.

CHOO CHOO REPORT - LILLIAN LAW

Heart of Georgia Corvair Club was well represented at the "Choo Choo" show. Billy and Eleanor Bruce,

Al and Paula Hilderbrand, Dean Gemberling and son J. B. Feathers (soon to be a marine), Bill and Jeannette Rudolph, Raymond Paul, James and Lillian Law all displayed their Corvairs. Chuck and Shirley Smith, Wanda Cook, Billy, Wendy and Kevin Price also attended.

Heart of Georgia had 3 winning Rampsides (all driven) entered in the People's Choice event. Trophies were awarded, 1st Billy Bruce, Red Rampside, 2nd James Law, Teal Rampside and 3rd Dean Gemberling, Orange Rampside. James Law received the longest distance driven and also the oldest attendee awards.

The trophies had pictures of the winners with their Corvairs.

There were 43 very nice Corvairs displayed in the beautiful gardens of the "Choo Choo" Hotel. This is one of the nicest locations to show cars that we have attended. Of the 43 entrants eight were F.C.'s.

"Choo Choo" held their last show in 1989. We congratulate them on a very enjoyable event; location was great, attendance good and fellowship wonderful.
