NEWS FLASH

Ted Fahrenthold has returned to being self employed full time in the restoration business.

After much consideration and 7 years of working for other people he decided to give it a go on his own again. He will be working from the shop behind his house with a focus on classic vehicle restoration and restoration of all things Corvair. He will consider repairs on late model vehicles on a case by case basis. Corvair work will involve all facets (body, interior, mechanical) of Corvair repair and restoration.

This new business is titled Ted's Auto Restoration and Corvair Repair. You can see examples of his work and progress on current projects at Facebook.com/tedsautorestitution. Contact info remains the same at 770-621-9999.

Tybee Island Recap (Submitted by Al Hilderbrand)

Paula and I attended the Tybee Island event this year and we had a great time. The official event was Nov 8th and 9th but Paula and I ventured down on the 7th as we were celebrating our 30th wedding anniversary. The event is just for fun, bring a Corvair if you wanted and don't bring it if you didn't but come enjoy each other.

It was a bit windy over the occasion but we had a blast anyway. We had dinner Saturday night at UNCLE BUBBA'S which is just over the bridge from Tybee in Savannah. One of the best meals we have ever had and priced very reasonable too. Can't tell you much more as "What Happens in Tybee Stays in Tybee". I will say the highlight of the weekend was when the front office called Friday night and said the other motel guests were complaining about what sounded to them like college kids partying and asked us to "Please Go to Bed".

Attendees: Joan and Tommy Couch, Jimmie and Dennis Finley, Rhonda Gail and Joe Gleaton, Paula and Al Hilderbrand, Sarah and Richard Jenkins, Lillian and James Law, Pam and Jim McLott, Billy and Wendy Price, Kevin Price, Chuck Smith, Shirley Smith, Charles Wofford.
